Trident Advisors LLC has established and maintains a Code of Ethics described in Item 10 above. A copy of this Code of Ethics will be provided to any client or prospective client upon request.

Trident Advisors LLC, as a matter of policy and practice, seeks to obtain best execution for client transactions, that is, seeking to obtain not necessarily the lowest commission but the best overall qualitative execution in the particular circumstances. There exists a potential for conflicts of interest if the account incurs a higher commission or transaction cost than the account would otherwise have incurred had the client determined to effect account transactions through alternative clearing arrangements that may have been available through Advisor. In the event of a potential conflict, clients are advised of the alternative arrangements available.

Trident Advisors LLC maintains and enforces written policies reasonably designed to: (1) prevent the misuse of material non-public information by Trident or any person associated with Trident, and (2) monitor the personal securities transactions of its associated persons to prevent any potential material conflicts of interest between Trident, any person associated with Trident, and any of its clients.

Trident Advisors LLC introduces clients to the wrap fee programs of third party advisors, who in effect execute investment advisory transactions on behalf of our clients. During the last fiscal year, no products or services to Trident Advisors LLC were acquired with client brokerage commissions (or markups or markdowns). Client transactions were directed to Trident Partners, Ltd. as an affiliate. No soft dollar benefits were derived from this affiliation.
